Last Updated: May 25, 2021Loosen your belt, fix yourself a cocktail and settle down for a mouth-watering culinary extravaganza as five strangers battle it out for the five hosts a dinner party for the other four. But this is competitive entertaining and at the end of each evening the guests award marks out of ten. The host with the most points at the end of the week wins £1,000. Each amateur chef believes they can cook up the perfect evening and hopes their unique style will clinch them the title of best host... But with gourmet guests judging every move, the culinary cracks start to show. Can the hosts rise to the challenge, or do they reach boiling point a little too quickly?Nigel Evans gave his guests a night to remember with Hollywood glamour and downright diva bitching 10.00 1 votes It's day two of the food lovers' competition in Ayr, and the turn of college lecturer Elaine Munro. Elaine's hoping her no-nonsense approach to dining will score highly. 10.00 1 votes In this special edition all the contestants - or should that be housemates? - are former Big Brother vinners. Stepping up to the plate are series 2 winner - quick-witted, cheeky Irish chappy Brian Dowling; Big Brother 5 champion - passionate, Portuguese Nadia Almada; 2007 winner - Essex wide-boy Brian Belo; and 2009's gorgeous victor - glamour model Sophie Reade. The week starts with Brian Dowling, who quickly regrets presenting a rather easy menu. Nadia makes it clear from the outset that she is going to be quick with the criticisms and is less than impressed with some of Sophie's dopey comments (she asks if potatoes grow on trees) or Brian's uncouth behaviour. On night two Nadia is convinced that she's going to win with her authentic Portuguese menu. It's not long before conversation turns to this week's hot topic - breasts - and an eye-watering anecdote from Nadia leaves everyone shocked. Brian Belo plays host on night three and there are farcical scenes as the novice chef attempts to prep his ambitious menu, and yet more flirting between Brian Belo and Sophie, culminating in a cheeky kiss. On the final night 'stranger to vegetables' Sophie hosts, with a minimal menu and an even more minimal outfit. At the table, Sophie shows her latest bikini photos to the group, much to Brian Belo's delight. The dinner ends on a sour note, however, when Nadia vents her spleen at a shell-shocked Brian Belo. But which of the popular Big Brother winners will be crowned the Champion of Champions and win the £1,000 charity prize? 10.00 1 votes Stuart Henson is bringing the Serengeti to Milton Keynes. Can his exotic menu and parlour games smooth over the insults and tensions simering from the previous nights? 10.00 1 votes Despite an eventful week, country lover Susan Rogers is confident her back to basics French food has the edge. Plus, she has an origami master class planned as entertainment. 10.00 1 votes Cost conscious Chris Hiller plans an eclectic menu for his night that includes chicken a l'orange and peppers stuffed with baked beans. He's hoping the total cost of the meal for five will be just £18 and even plans to water down the wine. Is this any way to win Natasha's affections? 10.00 1 votes Listen NowFirst to host is Richard Massey, who's banking that his signature dish 'Drunken Duck' and his cheeky chappy humour will win his guests favour. 10.00 1 votes The third night is hosted by builder Richard Lees. But following the departure of local politician Tim Marters from the competition, all eyes are on his replacement, forthright body piercer Linda Rossiter. 10.00 1 votes Kitchenware saleswoman Penny Peklivanas is confident her majestic house will impress her guests. But her croissant-based main and bragging prove controversial. 10.00 1 votes This festive celebrity special features former Crimewatch presenter Rav Wilding, Olympic swimmer Rebecca Adlington, TV personality Jennifer Ellison, actor Alex Carter, and Mrs Moneypenny from SuperScrimpers. 10.00 1 votes This festive celebrity special features former Crimewatch presenter Ray Wilding, Olympic swimmer Rebecca Adlington, TV personality Jennifer Ellison, actor Alex Carter, and Mrs Moneypenny from SuperScrimpers. 10.00 1 votes This festive celebrity special features former Crimewatch presenter Ray Wilding, Olympic swimmer Rebecca Adlington, TV personality Jennifer Ellison, actor Alex Carter, and Mrs Moneypenny from SuperScrimpers. 10.00 1 votes This festive celebrity special features former Crimewatch presenter Rav Wilding, Olympic swimmer Rebecca Adlington, TV personality Jennifer Ellison, actor Alex Carter, and Mrs Moneypenny from SuperScrimpers. 10.00 1 votes It's the second night in north Surrey, and Shoba is serving an Indian menu. The guests are less than impressed with the frozen fish curry; can belly dancing, Bollywood-style, save the day? 10.00 1 votes Second to host in Preston is support worker Martin Ainsworth, who hopes his menu of classics with a twist will go down a treat, but he has a setback when he overcooks the steaks. 10.00 1 votes Energy consultant David hosts the final party in south Wales, putting on an evening of classic dinner-party fare, but his offal-based starter does not go down well with everyone. A revelation about his stately home leaves guests open-mouthed and one diner finds themselves banished to the dungeon. 10.00 1 votes 10.00 1 votes 10.00 1 votes the third night in Essex and Claire lays on a lavish East End feast. But will her traditional fare be pukka enough to scoop the prize? After Sam disappointed everyone yesterday with her boring food, will she be looking for vengeance? And lovelorn Joanna makes a shock proposition to her new heart-throb Chris. 9.33 3 votes Dawn's had an emotional week: driven to tears; being sick. Can she choke it back for her big night? 9.00 1 votes Retired granny and experimental cook Nina Gaskell is first to host in Medway, Kent, and is serving cucumber stuffed with corned beef Kick-boxing, keep-fit-crazy Nina is hoping to impress her guests with some very unusual dishes - gravy with coconut, anyone? - but there's a genuine sense of fear when Nina's stuffed cucumber arrives at the table. And the guests are even more baffled by her bizarre choice of palate cleansers. 9.00 2 votes First to host in Coventry is 22year-old wannabe glamour model Annierose Crone, who loves sausages so much they will feature not only in her starter and her main, but her dessert as well. 9.00 1 votes Four rugby greats - Kyran Bracken, Martin Offiah, Victor Ubogu and Gareth Chilcott - go shoulder-to-shoulder in a charity rugby special. Cheeky scrum half Kyran Bracken kicks off a week of banter and boisterousness by comparing manly war wounds with his fellow players. Also the quartet play 'egg Russian roulette', involving mussels and an 'authentic' Nigerian stew. Prop forward Victor Ubogu decides to lighten the mood on night three by getting everyone up close and personal with some sheep. And as 'lightweights' Martin and Kyran re left lagging, things get even more lively when Victor's guests discover that his dining table doubles as a pool table. Gareth Chilcott rounds off the week. 9.00 1 votes First to host in Milton Keynes is Ray Dodd, who finds his guests difficult to please. With his starter rejected and a main returned, Ray is left sweating over his chances of winning the prize. 9.00 2 votes Michelle Watson's black tie evening definitely doesn't go to plan, as guests diss her food, including calling the main 'poison'. Will her luck turn with the Monte Carlo entertainment she's got planned? 9.00 1 votes Nicknamed 'the assassin' for the harsh things he's said so far this week, choir director Joseph Benneh's chicken liver pate and groundnut soup with coconut rice needs to be sensational if he's to avoid a backlash. 9.00 1 votes © Copyright 2021 Episode NinjaAboutAdvertiseShows Privacy Policy We are a participant in the Amazon Services LLC Associates Program, an affiliate advertising program designed to provide a means for us to earn fees by linking to Amazon.com and affiliated sites. Come Dine With Me is undeniably one of Channel 4's most popular programmes, reaching a whopping 45 series and counting. Fans can apply to be on the show now. If successful, they'll be prepping and serving a three-course meal for several contestants to judge. All in an effort to score as many as 40 points – the highest score possible on the series – and win a £1,000 cash prize. But has anyone hit the top score yet? Let's find out... Has anyone scored 40 on Come Dine With Me? Sadly, no-one has yet to score the ultimate top marks of 40 out of 40. The moment was revisited on Come Dine With Me's Facebook page in March 2020. Ian impressed three of four diners enough to get 10 marks a piece - with one even referring to the evening's meal as 'perfect'. Unluckily, the fourth diner, Margaret, gave lan a 9 - because she wasn't impressed by still water being served in plastic bottles, nor a chip in one of lan's pyrex serving dishes. What's the lowest score ever received on Come Dine With Me? A world away from a high score of 39, contestant Lee received a shockingly low seven out of 40 in a 2009 episode. Lee Pritchett spent ages getting his starter ready, prompting diner Natalie to ask when it'd be coming. He then snapped at his guests as he revealed he still had "loads" left to do, with one diner saving: 'If this was a restaurant. I'd have walked out ages ago.' Eventually, Lee skipped the starter on his menu, leaving diners to crack on with their sub-par main course. Channel 4 relived the cringeworthy score on Facebook in January 2020. When is Come Dine With Me on? You can currently see Come Dine With Me on every weekday on Channel 4 – with four episodes airing back to back, Monday-Friday, from 9.55am-11.55am. Couples Come Dine With Me airs on Saturdays on Channel 4 at 11.25am. MORE : Is Come Dine With Me on Netflix? Follow Metro across our social channels, on Facebook, Twitter and Instagram.

It was produced by ITV Studios (formerly known as Granada) until 2013, when Shiver Productions took over. First broadcast in January 2005, the show has either four or five amateur chefs competing against each other hosting a dinner party for the other contestants. Each competing the show has either four or five amateur chefs competing against each other hosting a finance with the winner winning a £1,000 cash prize which was announced by the competitor who hosted the dinner party on Friday. An element of comedy is added to the show through comedian Dave Lamb, who provides a dry and bitingly sarcastic narration.[1] The format has been franchised internationally by many other broadcasters throughout the world. International broadcasts[edit | edit source] As well as being repeated on Channel 4, their sister channel More4 also regularly broadcasts past episodes on Saturday evenings and Sunday afternoons, with all five programmes from a week shown consecutively in a block. Episodes from the first series are also regularly shown on Discovery Real Time, DMAX UK, Discovery Travel & Living, and Discovery Home & Health. The programme is shown: Derivative formats[edit | edit source] On 21 March 2007 it was announced that rival broadcaster ITV1 had commissioned a new daytime programme, House Guest from Granada Productions, a part of the same company which also produces Come Dine With Me.[2] The format for House Guest is very similar to that of Come Dine With Me, in that several contestants visit each other out of 10 in private, even the scoreboard layout is the same. The difference is that in House Guest, guests 'draw toothbrushes' to see who will stay overnight at the host's house, to judge their hospitality skills, awarding them a separate grade. Another show from ITV which was extremely similar to the format of Come Dine with Me was May the Best House Win, with the only real difference being that there was no meal served, contestants instead rating each other on things such as cleanliness, comfort and hospitality. Both shows involved four contestants, both carried a £1,000 prize and both had a sarcastic voice-over during proceedings. website that they would be producing a fourth series for 2008 and issued an appeal for contestants living in Bath, Newcastle, Oxford, Exeter, the Fylde Coast, and Shropshire.[33] Unlike previous series it would be aired in primetime and only feature four guests so that it could be aired as a single weekly hour-long episode. It is alternately titled "Come Dine with Me All in One" (as it is listed on the Channel 4 website). In episode 22, Lee Pritchett received a record breaking low score (for 4 contestants) of 7, obtaining scores of 3, 3 and 1. Series 28: Daytime[edit | edit source] Series 28 featured "Extra Portions" episodes of the primetime [edit] edit source] Series 28: Daytime[edit | edit source] Series 28: Daytime[edit] edit source 29 began on Channel 4 in January 2013 with the Comedy Mash up. The latter half of the series, commencing 2 September 2013, was broadcast weekdays during the 5pm timeslot with the typical primetime format. Episode 28 was erroneously described by the voiceover as being in west Lancashire but in fact the episode took place in north Lancashire (Lancaster and Morecambe). This series was also prominent for featuring Ritchie (The Beast of Mushroom) Lawson. (Note: Channel 4 website calls this Series 36.) Episode 1 of this series has become particularly infamous, with an ending that made top stories on national news sites. Peter Marsh had an outburst after finishing in 4th place (with scores of 7, 4 and 3 out of 10) saying that the winner (Jane) had deliberately sabotaged his evening to win. He said that she lived a "sad little life" and suggested that she should use the £1000 prize money to pay for some "lessons in grace and decorum".[47] Episode Premiered Location Contestants 1 4 January 2016 East Oxfordshire Charlotte Jane Adam Peter 2 5 January 2016 North Somerset Sue Heidi Myles Nick 3 6 January 2016 Manchester Chris Regan Thomas Wendy 5 8 January 2016 Cardiff Lianne Ross Grace Lee 6 11 January 2016 Cambridgeshire Sam Lisa Merlin Julia 7 12 January 2016 Wolverhampton Philippa Curtis Shermayne Carl 8 13 January 2016 South East London Karen Eve Howard Rob 9 14 January 2016 Portsmouth Maz Chris Rob Sian 11 18 January 2016 Colchester Vanessa Michael Maurice Maureen 12 19 January 2016 York Svenja Oli Nichola Craig 13 20 January 2016 Oxfordshire Lynsey Shirley Felix Simon 14 21 January 2016 Milton Keynes Becky Chris Kay Andy 15 22 January 2016 Bristol Richard Anne Harriet Steve 16 25 January 2016 Glasgow John Leona Andrea Peter 17 26 January 2016 Cardiff Dan Julie Jess Jason 18 27 January 2016 Cambridge Tom Nicole Sam Philip 19 28 January 2016 Leicester Darren Chloe Tayeba Ross 20 29 January 2016 Northampton Russell Justyna Josh Brenda Special short episode of Come Dine With Me aired during the annual Children in Need telethon featuring the UK cast of Dragons' Den except for James Caan, who opted out. The premise of this show was that the male dragons Duncan Bannatyne, Peter Jones, and Theo Paphitis each cooked a course for their guest Deborah Meaden. [48] On 6 June 2012, More4 aired a "top 30" episode which featured clips of previous episodes. This episode is filed under Series 27 by Channel 4 which does not currently contain any other episodes.
